

Restriction on Hazardous Substances (RoHS) Directive Statement

This document contains our statement regarding the implementation of the European Union's Restriction on Hazardous Substances (RoHS) Directive (2011/65/EU) for the materials/components used by British Encoder Products Company (BECo) to produce finished goods.

The information contained herein is in regard to All BECo Encoders and Finished Goods Effective January 01, 2007.

British Encoder Products Company supports our customers' requirements to maintain compliance with Directive 2011/65/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 8 June 2011 on the restriction of the use of certain hazardous substances in electrical and electronic equipment (RoHS), and all subsequent related Commission Decisions to date.

BECo is committed to ensuring continued compliance with the requirements of the RoHS regulation.

To the best of my knowledge, the above statements and declarations are true.

Signed,

Stephen A Evans
